

JURE 2012 SECOND CALL FOR PROPOSALS

16th Conference of Junior Researchers of EARLI
A Learning Odyssey: Exploring New Horizons in Learning and Instruction
23 – 27 July 2012, Regensburg, Germany

Proposal submission: 19 October – 14 December 2011
Date of notification: 31 January 2012

<http://www.earli-jure2012.org>

Dear colleagues,

We are happy to announce the 16th conference of the JUNior REsearchers of EARLI, which will take place in Regensburg, Germany, from 23 to 27 of July 2012.

THE CONFERENCE THEME

The conference theme of JURE 2012 is "A Learning Odyssey: Exploring New Horizons in Learning and Instruction". Every scientist knows that research requires you to think "outside the box", and in doing so explore new territory. We are continuously presented with innovative and new questions, methodologies, ideas, and challenges while undertaking this journey. As early-stage researchers we are called upon to face these challenges and trained to adopt diverse perspectives and explore new horizons while expanding our knowledge-base.

OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE

This exciting journey called research – a journey that is now more collaborative than individual – should now also feature an arena in which to share your new ideas. The JURE 2012 conference in Regensburg is one such excellent opportunity. The JURE 2012 organizing committee cordially invites you to participate in a "Learning Odyssey" with world-renowned keynote speakers and expert-led workshops, paper presentations and interactive poster and round table discussions.

To deepen this collaborative journey all participants of the 16th JURE Conference are expected to take part in the feedback procedure and to provide comments on one paper, poster or round table handout of another conference participant. Additionally, on paper proposals you will receive feedback from an experienced senior researcher.

All junior researchers (PhD and Master's students, as well as graduates who have received their doctorate within the last two years) can apply to participate in the 16th JURE Conference. Thus you will have the opportunity to meet many talented young researchers with whom you can explore "New Horizons in Learning and Instruction", both during formal presentations and in informal chats during coffee breaks, lunch hours and social activities.

PROPOSAL FORMATS

Proposals should consist of an abstract (300 words at maximum) and an extended summary (1000 words at maximum, including references). Proposals for the following session formats should be submitted through the conference website:

- Paper presentation: A paper session consists of 2 or 3 conceptually linked papers. Each presentation lasts 15 minutes followed by 10 minutes for questions and discussion.
- Poster presentation: Posters are grouped conceptually. Each poster is introduced with oral presentation (max 3 min.), thereafter there is time to freely walk from poster to poster.
- Round table: A round table session consists of 2 or 3 conceptually linked projects. Each presenter has 5 minutes to introduce his/her project and raise one or two open questions. 25 minutes are intended for discussion.

To make sure that you choose the most appropriate format for the current phase of your research, see the information on our website.

SUBMISSION

The submission system is now open. To submit a proposal, go to http://conference.earli.org/conference_submissions?conference=13. The deadline for submission is December 14, 2011. Notification of decision will be given January 31, 2012.

REGISTRATION

Registration for the conference will be possible from January 31, 2012. The conference fee depends on time as well as condition of registration and will be approximately 185 euro, including lunches, coffee breaks and some social activities. Please note that EARLI JURE members will be entitled to a reduced conference fee. If you want to become a JURE member – and receive the reduced conference fee – please go to <http://www.earli.org> for more information. Make sure to apply as JURE member some weeks before your registration because a proof of your doctoral status is required.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT OUR WEBSITE <http://www.earli-jure2012.org/>

We look forward to seeing you in Regensburg!
JURE 2012 Organizing Committee

earli.jure.2012@gmail.com

Follow us on   