

ARGUPOLIS PhD Program Argumentation in context

TOPICS: THE ARGUMENT GENERATOR

Prof. Eddo Rigotti, Dr. Sara Greco Morasso

March 9-11 2010

Convento del Bigorio, Tesserete

Time schedule

Introductory remarks. This time schedule will be slightly adapted according to the educational needs and desires of the participants. The whole course is open to a well-founded critical attitude, thus questions and objections are welcome at any moment. However, specific discussion sessions have also been planned. Participants are also invited to bring their own examples to be analyzed in the case-study sessions.

March 9	14:00-14:30	Welcome reception and informal get-together
	14:30-18:30	Course introduction; examples and analysis (why topics is useful and how to use it)
	18:30	Dinner
March 10	9:00-11:00	Presentation of the Argumentum Model of Topics (AMT)
	11:00-12:00	Case-studies: analysis of argumentation in context
	12:00-14:30	Lunch and informal discussion
	14:30-17:30	Case-studies: analysis of argumentation in context; theoretical remarks
	17:30-18:30	Time for questions and objections (discussion)
	18:30	Dinner
March 11	9:00-12:00	Case-studies: analysis of argumentation in context
	12:00-14:00	Lunch and informal discussion
	14:00-15:00	Time for questions and objections (discussion)